

Professional Bio

Wunmi Akinlosotu, FInstLM, MBA

Living an intentional life with purpose and passion has always been a personal priority for Wunmi Akinlosotu.

She is the founder of three fast-growing businesses: Blooming Ladies™ Global - an innovative and inspiring “sisterhood” with chapters in Africa and Asia; Blooming Ladies™ Co-operative Canada - a first-of-its-kind multi-stakeholder co-operative that has been set up as the Canadian arm of Blooming Ladies™ Global and The Blooming Hub - a management and leadership firm.

To bloom is to flourish, thrive or come to be in full beauty, power and health and that is precisely what Wunmi wants her members, clients and all women to experience in their businesses, personal and spiritual lives.

She has a special passion for empowering women and has continued to support female entrepreneurs from diverse cultures and industries, locally and internationally through her events, trade shows, seminars, training sessions, coaching and capacity development programmes. Her experience cuts across start-ups, for-profits, non-profits, co-operatives and corporate organizations.

Wunmi's educational and career path has spanned the globe, taking her from Africa to Europe, to the Middle East and to North America.

Wunmi Akinlosotu holds a Bachelors in Management and Accounting and a Masters in Business Administration. She is a Certified Coach and a Neuro-Linguistic Programmer. She is a John Maxwell Leadership Trainer, and she is also a Fellow of the Institute of Leadership and Management.